Product Program 2024

Premium Fruit & Nut Confections from the Heart of Pacific Northwest Orchard Country Since 1920

OUR HISTORY

LIBERTY ORCHARDS®

After settling in Cashmere, WA in the early 1900s, Liberty Orchards founders Mark Balaban and Armen Tertsagian, both Armenian immigrants, were looking for ways to use the excess apples from their orchards. They experimented with an old-world recipe called “locoum,” also known as Turkish Delights, by using apple juice and local walnuts in place of traditional flavorings.

This new confection was a huge success with the locals, and they named their new product Aplets®. They opened their candy factory in 1920, and soon, Aplets® were being sent all over the country as gifts from the Northwest. In 1932, Cotlets®, made with apricots and walnuts, were introduced.

Today, we produce over 20 different fruit and nut confections, as well as nut-free, sugar-free, chocolate-dipped candies, and all-natural energy bars called the Orchard Bar®. Liberty Orchards also offers lines of various candy and pastry items including hard candies, chocolate bars, and small cakes.
